

[advancing e-mobility]

Drive solutions for the future of e-mobility

Become part of the success story of Morat swoboda

Morat Swoboda is a young, dynamic company that promotes electromobility with innovative drive solutions. To strengthen our creative, cosmopolitan team, we are looking for people who want to take this exciting path with us. For our location in Nowa Ruda, we are looking for a:

[Operator CNC (all genders)]

Your tasks

- Can independently choose materials and tools used for processing
- Monitors the operation of individual machines,
- Maintains individual devices in proper technical condition and order (5S)
- Carries out periodic technical inspections (TPM)
- Performs maintenance works on an occasional basis (AM)
- Regulates and programs devices for machining,
- Develops instructions and standards for the use of the previously mentioned devices
- Fully take care of all the processes occurring at the workplace
- Supports the work of production support departments in order to improve quality, efficiency and safety at the workplace
- Presents rationalization proposals

Your profile

- Candidates for this position should have proven experience as a CNC operator
- The ability to use CNC machines and tools as well as precise measuring tools
- The ability to read and interpret technical documentation.
- Computer knowledge, attention to detail and a resultsbased approach
- Developed communication skills

Interested?

We are looking forward to receive your convincing application documents, including your expected salary and possible date of entry. Please send your application to: a.osicka@morat-swoboda.com

We offer:

-  Medical package
-  Group Insurance
-  Training and Courses

Kontakt:

Agata Osicka-Bochan
Asystentka PM/Spezjalista ds. administracji
Tel. + 48 731 616 333
a.osicka@morat-swoboda.com